Unipres Corporation has received a new order for car body parts from Honda Motor Co., Ltd. and has commenced full-scale production. The details are as follows.

1. Order overview

- Ordered parts: Pressed car body products for HONDA's new compact minivan Freed.

2. Production overview

- Planned number of units: 4,000 units / month
- Production plant: Tochigi Plant (Oyama)
- Time of full-scale production: May, 2008

3. Client profile

- Name: Honda Motor Co., Ltd.
- Address: 1-1, 2-chome, Minami-Aoyama, Minato-ku, Tokyo, Japan

4. Future outlook

Unipres has long been producing car body structural parts for Honda's overseas subsidiaries in the United States and United Kingdom markets. This is the first domestic order Unipres has received from Honda based on these overseas business results, and can be viewed as a result of Honda's high evaluation of our technologies, quality, and global business capacity. We will continue to seize opportunities to positively expand our sales in many markets.
