Unipres has announced that it will construct a tool & die plant within UNIPRES GUANGZHOU CORPORATION for the purpose of manufacturing press dies in China.

1. Outline of Tool & Die Plant in China

(1) Address: UNIPRES GUANGZHOU CORPORATION,

Huadu Block, Guangzhou City, Guangdong Province, China

(2) Manufacturing capacity: 20 dies per month

(3) Investment amount: 1.4 billion yen (building: 200 million yen, equipment: 1.2 billion yen)

(4) Additional area of building: 5,724 m<sup>2</sup> (from 45,500 m<sup>2</sup> to 51,224 m<sup>2</sup>)

(5) Additional employees: 84 (from 410 to 494)

2. Reason for Construction

New car production in China is expected to expand in the near future. In order to reduce the lead time for the delivery of dies and cut the die manufacturing cost, including transportation cost, the company has decided to construct a tool & die plant within UNIPRES GUANGZHOU CORPORATION.

3. Construction Schedule

(1) Construction of building to start in November 2005.

(2) Operation scheduled to start in August 2006.

4. Impact on Future Earnings

There are no revisions to the consolidated earnings forecast for FY2005 ending March 2006 as a result of the construction of the tool & die plant in China.
